DEATH PENALTY

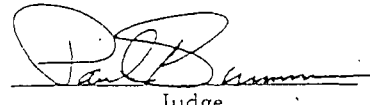

NO. 96-589

ORDER

The State of Tennessee has moved this Court to modify the record in this case pursuant to T.R.A.P. 24(e). The record transmitted to this Court does not contain the verdict form of the jury imposing the death sentence. On this form, the jury enumerates the aggravating circumstance found, and each of the twelve jurors sign the form showing their unanimity in the sentence imposed. This verdict form is properly included in this record, but it has been omitted.

It is therefore ORDERED that the trial court certify a copy of the jury verdict form signed by the twelve jurors and transmit this form to this Court to be included in the appellate record.

ENTERED this the 3 day of December, 1997.

PUNISHMENT OF DEATH

(1) We, the jury, unanimously find the following listed statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances:

(Here list the statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances so found, which must be limited to those enumerated for your consideration by the court in these instructions.)

The murder was especially heinous, atrocious, or cruel in that it involved torture or serious physical abuse beyond that necessary to produce death.

(2) We, the jury, unanimously find that the state has proven beyond a reasonable doubt that the statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances so listed above outweigh any mitigating circumstances.

(3) Therefore, we, the jury, unanimously find that the punishment for the defendant, Jon Hall, shall be death.
